2. A man named [REDACTED] called, [REDACTED]. He said he voted for you in the past but said he is disappointed that you haven't spoken up for the truckers at the bridge, he said you need to get on camera and point out that the media have been lying by said that all truckers are racists and Nazis and that someone needs to speak up for it. He said that you don't need to say that the blockade is a good idea but that you should stand up for the truckers against the medias lies because all mandates are being lifted soon and most voters are in favour of this. He said he will not vote for you again if you don't do it. He left this same message for all the Councillors so I doubt he is in your ward or even a resident of the City of Windsor.
